About the artist

Oksana Steffan is a self-taught artist, art teacher and linguist.

She was born in small Belarussian village in 1968. For many years she taught art history at school. This led to a series of art workshops focused on aspiring young artists. Ms. Steffan encouraged her students to participate in different art projects in Belarus and abroad.

Art has always been a keen interest of Ms. Steffan and her love for art was encouraged by her parents, who both drew well, though, like her, without professional education.

For the last 11 years, Ms. Steffan resides in Germany with her husband whom she met 20 years ago in Belarus. He came to Belarus as a volunteer to help people deal with the aftermath of the Chernobyl ecological catastrophe.

Since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, Ms. Steffan has not been able to teach, thus finding opportunities to explore different themes in her art.

This artist prefers to paint quick ala prima works reflecting motion energy and feelings in a homogenous flash to colour and texture. Her favourite subjects are abstract painting, portraits. Lately, Ms. Steffan prefers hot and wet media like encaustic, watercolour, sometimes painting in ink and even drawing with a finger on a cell phone when short of paper.
